Downtown Milwaukee

Ring in the holiday cheer during the 24th annual Milwaukee Holiday Lights Festival. With sparkling interactive displays at Pere Marquette Park, Zeidler Union Square and Cathedral Square, it's the perfect chance to capture a memory that ignites joy for everyone, no matter their age.

Downtown is stuffed with delights in every corner, be it shopping, dining, the arts, sports and more. We've got all the fun wrapped up here in this guide, so take it along on your next adventure downtown!

Extend Your Visit with Dinner or an Overnight Stay

Downtown Milwaukee has an expansive menu of dining options – from casual pub fare and modern steakhouses to global cuisine and everything in between. Our hotels also cater to a wide array of needs, with options ranging from dog-friendly to fully furnished chef's kitchens on each floor. Visit milwaukeeholidaylights.com to browse restaurant and hotel listings. And while you're there, check out downtown Milwaukee's retail offerings, too!

The Bells of Milwaukee

Did you know? Downtown Milwaukee is home to nearly 10 bell towers. That includes the city's oldest surviving bell, the Saint Ignatius at Convent Hill, and the 11th largest bell in the nation, the Solomon Juneau at Milwaukee's City Hall.

With the assistance of The Bells of Milwaukee, a group that has led a midnight chorus of bells on New Year's Eve, Milwaukee's bells will ring in unison at the start of the Milwaukee Holiday Lights Festival Kickoff on November 17 at 6pm, to recognize the beginning of the holiday season in our city.
